Reflecting on this landmark moment, IDAB's outgoing convenor Mr. Shafiu Islam remarked,

"This association stands today as a result of the relentless efforts of many individuals. The interior designers of Bangladesh have high expectations from IDAB, and we trust this newly elected Executive Committee which will rise to this occasion."

The ceremony also featured discussions on the future vision and strategic direction of IDAB, emphasizing industry development and the pivotal role of interior designers in shaping Bangladesh's built environment.

With this dynamic new leadership, IDAB is set to play a transformative role in advancing the interior design profession in Bangladesh, fostering innovation, and advocating for the needs of industry professionals.

President Message

Syed Quamrul Ahsan
President, Interior Designers Association of Bangladesh (IDAB) (2024-2026)

It is a great honor to serve as the President of the Interior Designers Association of Bangladesh (IDAB) for the 2024-2026 term. I sincerely thank my fellow members for their trust and support. IDAB has been instrumental in elevating the interior design profession in Bangladesh, and as the only government-certified trade organization for interior designers, our responsibility is greater than ever.

With over 20 years of experience in interior design, structural engineering, consulting, and education, I have witnessed the transformative power of design in shaping environments, businesses, and communities. As we move forward, our focus will be on strengthening professional development, promoting design excellence, and ensuring global recognition for Bangladeshi designers.

Our priorities include expanding educational programs, fostering collaboration with international organizations, and advocating for policies that support the profession. We will work to integrate sustainable practices, preserve and modernize traditional craftsmanship, and embrace technological advancements such as AI and virtual design tools that are reshaping our industry.

IDAB aims to broaden its reach and deepen its impact. Through strategic initiatives, industry partnerships, and knowledge-sharing platforms, we will create greater opportunities for designers, strengthen our community, and establish Bangladesh as a center for interior design excellence. By working together, we can push boundaries, set new standards, and showcase our unique design identity on the global stage. With collaboration, dedication, and a shared vision, we can drive innovation, uphold professional excellence, and elevate Bangladesh's interior design industry to new heights.
